

Guns, Bayonets Maintain Order In Argentina

By SAM SUMMERLIN
BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (U.P.)—Thousands of workers announced sympathy strikes today in support of a walkout by public and private telephone and cable company employees, and troops kept watch as Argentina's labor troubles mounted.

Amateur radio listeners in Santiago, Chile, heard reports that a revolt had broken out against President Pedro Aramburu, but this report was denied here. One political leader who saw President Aramburu said he was concerned about the labor troubles but chuckled at reports of military difficulties.

The communications strike cut reports from the provinces here to a trickle.

Soldiers and sailors took over cable and telephone offices yesterday and evicted employees who had been staging two weeks of stay-in and go-slow strikes for higher wages.

Most labor syndicates in La Plata, capital of Buenos Aires province, decided to begin progressive work stoppages in sympathy.

A government spokesman denied rumors published abroad that the army had demanded Aramburu and his Cabinet resign.

The government took armed action against the communications workers after rounding up 10 union leaders and charging them with inciting other workers to strike. Among those held were 20 women.

After the roundup of the leaders, the unions of telephone and telegraph workers called for a general strike. They said the strike will continue until the leaders are released.

Government broadcasts appealed to retired telegraph operators to take jobs in an emergency basis. High officials in the private cable companies handled essential messages.

The government and unions went into negotiations to try to settle the general strike.

The government, however, took the position the sit-downs and slow-downs were illegal. It withdrew recognition of employees' representatives named to negotiate a settlement.

Telephone workers are asking a monthly raise of 700 pesos ($18.90). Telegraph workers want a 1,000-peso ($27 raise). The government, in a battle to halt inflation, opposes wage boosts.

Progress Is Reported in Phone Talks

NEW YORK (U.P.)—Negotiators reported "encouraging progress" today in talks aimed at ending a four-day strike of telephone equipment installers in 44 states.

Federal mediator Walter Maggilo issued the progress report, the first since the strike began Monday, at the conclusion of a 16-hour marathon negotiations meeting interrupted only for meals.

Negotiations, which recessed at 2:30 a.m. e.d.t. were expected to resume this morning between Maggilo, Joseph E. Dunc, chief negotiator for the striking Communications Workers of America, and A. D. Billotte, head negotiator for the Western Electric Co.

Negotiating teams for both disputants were standing by.

On strike are 23,000 members of the CWA who install telephone equipment at telephone exchanges in every state except Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Montana. They are seeking a one-year contract providing a wage increase, higher travel pay and improved fringe benefits.

Thousands of non-striking telephone operators have refused to cross picket lines set up by the installers. However, the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., of which Western Electric is the manufacturing arm, said that despite the strike both long-distance and local service is normal throughout the country.

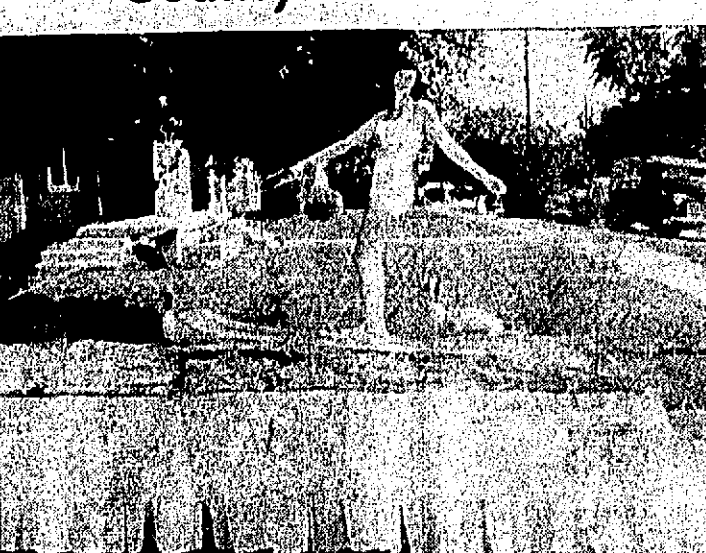

A spokesman for A.T.T. said operators who had been observing picket lines were returning to work in increasing numbers.

Emmet's Float in the Nevada County Fair Parade

In attempting to handle 12 pictures of floats in the Nevada County Fair parade at Prescott within a couple of hours of press-time, Hope Star made an unfortunate error in yesterday's edition. It published pictures of the Cale school float and none of Emmet's float. Above is the missing picture of Emmet High School's float, the theme being "Land of Lakes & Pines," and the girl aboard Miss Barbara Faulstich, school queen.

The Emmet float picture was made along with the rest at parade time 11 a.m. Wednesday — but a duplicate print of the Cale float confused the picture count, resulting in two for Cale and none for Emmet in yesterday's edition. Our apologies.

Scientist Who Develops Cure For Common Cold Should Be Hero of the Entire World

BALTIMORE (U.P.)—A 34-year-old Johns Hopkins scientist today held the attention of the medical world — as well as sneezers and sniffers everywhere — with disclosure he has developed an effective vaccine for the common cold.

Dr. Winston H. Price of the Hopkins School of Hygiene and Public Health said that:

1. He has succeeded in isolating the first "true" virus of the common cold — one responsible for 30 per cent of the cases he has studied over a two-year period.

2. He has developed a vaccine which, in controlled tests on more than 40 persons, prevented colds caused by the "JH virus" in 80 per cent of the cases.

"The possibility of mass producing the vaccine is very good, Dr. Price indicated, although he begged off answering any questions about commercial production.

"I know nothing about that at all," he said. "I'm a medical researcher. I will make nothing out of this whatsoever."

But he said the JH virus has been sent to other laboratories and they have been able to cultivate it using the methods developed here.

Immunity is produced from two shots, the second following the first by four weeks, Dr. Price said. He could not say how long the immunity would last.

He said the vaccine was made from killed JH virus and had produced no symptoms, discomfort or side effects.

Reaction of the medical world was as cautious as it was scarce. Most researchers and virus experts declined comment until they have seen Dr. Price's scientific report.

Because common colds are caused by an unknown number of viruses, Dr. Price emphasized that his vaccine cannot be expected to be effective against all of them.

The first report of the vaccine came last night in a Baltimore Sun copyright story by science reporter Weldon Wallace and was later confirmed by Dr. Price.

Highly trained groups of volunteers from boys training schools took part in the experiments conducted by Dr. Price, director of the Division of Medical Ecology of the Hopkins School of Hygiene and Public Health.

The vaccine was tested in an epidemic which occurred normally in one group of 100 boys, 50 were

Oust Hoffa or Get Kicked Out Teamsters Told

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—An AFL-CIO committee in effect gave the giant Teamsters Union a choice today between getting rid of James R. Hoffa and other leaders it labeled as corrupt or being ousted from the federation.

That is the purport of an AFL-CIO Ethical Practices committee report finding formally that the Teamsters Union is corruptly dominated.

The report named Hoffa, Dave Beck, Frank Brewster and others as being responsible.

The AFL-CIO Executive Council, which meets in New York next week, still must act on the report and prescribe the terms of any penalty. But that is regarded as a formality.

The decision is up to the Teamsters, a through cleanup, or seemingly certain ouster from the AFL-CIO family of unions.

This is no meaningless penalty. It would mean Teamsters' officials everywhere would have to forfeit positions of prominence in key state and local labor echelons.

It also would mean ostracism and all-out warfare with practically all the rest of organized labor — a fight that could be bloody and could endure for many years.

What effect this will have on the 44-year-old Hoffa's ambitions to take over the teamsters' progress convention, it is hard to say. Sept. 30 at Miami Beach, Fla. Hoffa, like Brewster, is now a union vice president.

Three other union officials are opposing Hoffa for election to the presidency and one of them, Thomas J. Haggerty of Chicago, announced he will start tomorrow a campaign swing through the last. He plans to visit Washington, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Detroit in the course of a speaking tour.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (U.P.)—Secretary of State Dulles called today the U. N. today to intervene in the Middle East situation. He said Soviet arms in Syria pose "a growing military danger" to Turkey.

Th secretary of state in a major policy speech told the 82-nation General Assembly "the United Nations may not be able by any material power it can muster to tranquilize the scene." But he declared it must exert its full influence to end Soviet efforts to dominate the Middle East.

Dulles said the Communists appear to be engaging in acts aimed at impairing the freedom and independence of certain Middle East nations.

"Also," he said, "we believe that these Soviet acts may, perhaps unwittingly, lead the recipients of Soviet arms into acts of direct aggression."

"Those who feel an abnormal sense of power as a result of the recent putting into their hands large amounts of Soviet bloc arms are being incited by violent propaganda," he added. "That is risky business."

On the night of October 15, 1956 13 local young men assembled at the Chamber of Commerce office to discuss the possibility of organizing a Junior Chamber of Commerce.

This organization became a reality on November 19, 1956 with a Charter Banquet at which time 42 Charter Members were in attendance. Since that time the local Jaycees have grown to a membership of 69.

They are now in the midst of a Membership drive and from all indications the goal of 100 members will be met by Sept. 30, 1957. The club has been divided into two groups and the group having the most members will eat steak at a banquet for the Jaycees and wives to be held the night of Sept. 30th which will climax this drive. Incidentally the losing side along with their wives will eat hamburgers.

The local club is being recognized as one of the outstanding Jaycee Clubs in the State. This could not have been accomplished without the whole hearted support of the paper, radio station, business and professional men and each citizen of Hope.

The local Jaycees are endeavoring to publicize Hope and at the same time endeavor in community development and self development. Any employer who has an employee of Jaycee age should insist that he become a Jaycee at once.

Red Warships on 'Friendly' Mid-East Visit

LONDON (U.P.)—Two Soviet warships sailed for Syria today on "friendship" mission, taking a course that could bring them close to the U.S. 6th Fleet in the eastern Mediterranean.

Moscow radio announced last night that the cruiser Zhdanov and the destroyer Svobodny are heading for the Syrian port of Latakia at the invitation of the leftist government of Syria.

The Syrian government only last week charged U. S. warships made a provocative approach toward the Syrian coast. The U. S. Navy denied this.

The Soviet visit appeared to be a move to build Russian influence in the Mediterranean and bolster the Damascus regime.

It also appeared obvious the move was designed to counteract the 6th Fleet's cruise in the eastern Mediterranean. The U.S. fleet moved into the area after leftist army officers extended their control in Syria last month. The U.S. warships called at port Western Lebanon.

The Soviet vessels headed for Syria after a six-day visit to the Yugoslav port of Split.

Their movement is part of a pattern of increased Soviet naval activity in the Mediterranean and elsewhere during the past few months.

Gilbert has his Jersey's entered in the Third District Livestock Show which opens in Hope next Monday and in the Junior Division of the State Livestock Show opening in Little Rock the following week.

Negro Group May File a Lawsuit

NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (U.P.)—A Negro minister said today that a group of Negroes will meet tomorrow night to decide whether to file a suit in an attempt to force racial integration in North Little Rock schools.

The Rev. W. B. Banks, pastor of an African Methodist Episcopal church here, previously had stated that the suit would be filed last Monday or Tuesday.

He said that he wished he had not made that statement because filing of the suit will depend on the meeting tomorrow night.

Banks is the father of one of six Negro students who were turned away from all-white North Little Rock High School on Sept. 9.

The North Little Rock School Board announced plans for integration at the high school level some months ago but changed its position after a racial dispute at Little Rock's Central High.

Banks said that the suit would ask for integration of all schools.

Moderation, Says Ike on Eve of Hearing

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
NEWPORT, R. I. — President Eisenhower on the eve of the Arkansas school integration showdowns says the way to civil rights progress is mainly through "explanation, understanding and moderation."

It is in that way—and "not in laws alone"—that there will be rapid achievement of equality under the Constitution, the President says.

Eisenhower set forth his views anew late yesterday in agreeing

Meat Prices Are Shaded a Bit Lower

By The Associated Press
Meat prices are shaded a bit lower this week as supermarket men offer a wide variety of "specials."

Total meat supplies this year are expected to run about three per cent below last year's record volume. This week, however, pork chops are 4 to 6 cents lower in many sections and sirloin steaks are as much as 10 cents a pound cheaper in a smaller number of places. Leg of lamb is 2 cents

Faubus Calls on Judge Davies to Disqualify Self

By HELMAN MORIN

LITTLE ROCK (U.P.)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus defied a subpoena for a hearing in an integration lawsuit today and asked U. S. Dist. Judge Ronald N. Davies to disqualify himself as "biased and prejudiced."

The suit is not directly related to tomorrow's hearing, in which Faubus also is under subpoena, which grows out of his use of the National Guard to keep Negroes out of Central High School in Little Rock.

Faubus told reporters he does not know whether he will honor the summons for the Friday court action.

The Arkansas Democrat said, in a copyrighted story, that Faubus will withdraw the National Guard from Central High if the U.S. District Court issues an injunction tomorrow — as is expected.

Then, the Democrat reported, he will issue a statement saying the responsibility for the safety of Little Rock, and maintaining order, is out of his hands.

He will immediately file an appeal from the injunction with a higher court, the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals, the newspaper reported.

Faubus, when asked if he will remove the National Guard Monday, replied, "I don't know at this time."

"Can't you replace the guard with state troopers?" a newspaper asked.

"I don't have enough state troopers," he replied.

Mayor Woodrow Wilson Man informed of these developments said "I don't anticipate any degree of trouble, but you can't prophesy what's going to happen."

"I feel confident that the people of Little Rock are law-abiding Christians and are willing to abide by the law of the land," he said.

LITTLE ROCK (U.P.)—Gov. Orval Faubus today refused to appear as a witness in a federal court case involving four anti-integration acts passed by the 1957 Arkansas Legislature.

His rejection of a subpoena — on the ground that as chief executive of the state the federal court could not compel his appearance — gave a clue to his possible course of action tomorrow when he is scheduled to appear in the same court as a defendant in the government's petition for an injunction to prevent him from interfering further with integration at Little Rock Central High School.

National Guard troops, at the direction of Faubus, have kept Negro students from entering the school.

An attorney for 10 Negro ministers who are challenging constitutionality of the Arkansas laws attempting to halt or delay integration had obtained issuance of a subpoena for Faubus.

A R. Baker, of Little Rock, chief counsel for the plaintiffs, was asked if he and his colleagues would attempt to cite Faubus for contempt of court.

"Well, we'll at least ask for an attachment," he said.

Booker was asked in such a case if the federal marshal would attempt to escort Faubus to court.

"Well, he should," Booker replied.

The governor was to have appeared before the three-judge court at 10 a.m.

The governor sent this letter to H. Grady Miller, clerk of the U.S. District Court here:

"The U. S. marshal had delivered to me a subpoena to appear in your court Thursday morning, Sept. 19, at 10 a.m., to testify as a witness for the plaintiff in the case of Roland Smith et al vs. State Sovereignty Commission et al.

"While I have the utmost respect for your court and its valid processes, I must point out that almost from the very beginning of our republic it has been uniformly held that the chief executive is not compelled to comply with a subpoena unless he chooses to do so. In this particular case because of the obvious ulterior motive of those who obtained the subpoena, I do not choose to comply with it. I would thank you to so advise the court. The tendered witness fee of $4 is herewith returned."

Injected with the vaccine, 25 were given a saline solution which produced no effects, and 25 were given a preparation from killed monkey kidney tissue—the medium in which the virus was grown.

An outbreak of the colds from the JH virus occurred five weeks later, Dr. Price said, and 11 boys out of the 25 who received the saline solution caught colds. Twelve of the 25 who got the monkey tissue preparation also caught colds. But only 3 of the 5 who received the Price vaccine developed cold symptoms.

Eight times as many children developed colds among those who had not received the vaccine than among those who did.

The virus was grown and the preventive was prepared by techniques similar to those used in developing Salk polio vaccine and older vaccines of other types.

Exploits of Morros Grow Legendary

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The story of Boris Morros grows more legendary as the exploits of his sping against the Russians are revealed.

His years in Hollywood also are surrounded by legend, but some facts can be ascertained.

He did not write "The Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," as he has claimed. It is credited to Leon Jessel.

He did not compose and conduct hundreds of movie scores, as he also declares. His only big studio job was as head of Paramount's music department, a supervisory post.

But Morros' real achievements in Hollywood were almost as impressive as his exploits in espionage. A coworker recalls that Morros started with Paramount as a leader of traveling stage show bands in 1926. He was popular at the circuit's Mammoth theater and was held over as regular conductor. He returned to New York as head of stage conductors for the chain, and later took charge of all music.

He came to Paramount Studios in 1933, hoping to become a producer. But he was placed in command of the music department.

"His job was to find the right people for the right job—composers, orchestrators, etc.," recalled a fellow worker. "He never composed or conducted, though often he would stand behind the conductor and keep the beat."

He was very creative and brought to the studio some fine artists like Leopold Stokowski, Gladys Swarthout, and Kirsten Flagstad. He also brought Stokowski to the Hollywood Bowl for the first time and had the Bowl wired for sound with the finest equipment.

"At the end of his three-year contract in 1936, Morros left Paramount to fulfill his ambition to produce. He induced William LeBaron, then Paramount Studio boss, to join him in a new production company called "Flying Deuces" with Laurel and Hardy.

"Second Chorus" with Fred Astaire, the all-star "Tales of Manhattan" and the longhair "Carnegie Hall." None prospered at the box office.

It was ironic that his greatest—and most successful—production was his 12-year depiction of the wily Russian, a real-life performance more fantastic than anything he could produce on the screen.

The first self-starter on an automobile appeared on a Cadillac in 1911.

to meet with Rep. Adam Clayton Powell D-N.Y., a Negro, for a discussion of the Negroes' point of view on integration problems generally.

Powell, Harlem minister who bolted the Democratic party in the 1956 presidential race to support Eisenhower for re-election, wired the President Tuesday saying with respect to the school integration situation: "... I feel now that in the light of the growing crisis, it would be very helpful for you to get the Negroes' point of view directly."

Powell had suggested that President invite him and other Negro leaders to a parley on integration. There was no indication the President would meet with Negro leaders other than Powell.

James C. Hingerly, White House press secretary, said it might be a few days before a time and place for the conference are decided.

Eisenhower's reply to Powell was the occasion for his first public burst of the civil rights bill, which he signed into law Sept. 9. The President, who had asked more far-reaching legislation, wrote the congressman that the new law "protects the right of every citizen to vote without intimidation or coercion."

"This legislation marks one more step forward in assuring security to every individual in the exercise and enjoyment of his constitutional rights," he said.

The President then went on to say: "It is not in laws alone that rapid achievement of this purpose will be found, but rather that citizens will more readily respond to the dictates of fair and just laws if explanation, understanding and moderation—as well as firmness of purpose—are used by officials of government at every level."

cheaper in a few places.

Hams, chickens and various cuts of roast beef will be the features in the nation's chain and neighborhood stores. Items like oyster stew, calf's liver and smoked tongue also are featured in some places.

Coffee-lovers who exulted at last week's 4 to 6-cent reductions may get some more good news soon thanks to a bumper Brazilian crop which may top last year's by 40 per cent when it runs coming in next month. A further decline, of as much as 8 to 10 cents a pound by the end of the year, is expected by some.

Cauliflower, onions, potatoes, cucumbers and green peppers head the list of vegetable buys this week.

Carrots and celery are expected to be substantially scarcer than in 1958, although so far they are moderately priced. Carrots are even a shade lower than last week.

Other good vegetable buys are available in snap beans, Brussels sprouts, cabbage, egg plant, squash, tomatoes and sweet potatoes. Sweet corn is on the way out in most places and therefore growing more expensive.

Steadily-increasing supplies are easing the prices of assorted varieties of apples.

Grapes also are a good buy for the bargain-minded housewife. Pears show a higher tendency and peaches, too, are growing more expensive as supplies dwindle.

Another sure sign of fall in the market—first cranberries of the season in scattered areas.

The reign of the Czars in Russia was ended in 1917 when Nicholas 2d was overthrown by revolution.

Psychologists Invading Shadowy Suicide World

By JOHN W. BECKLER

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two psychologists have invaded the shadowy world of suicide in a search for clues left by the 15,000 Americans who kill themselves each year.

If the doctors could learn to recognize the subtle hints thrown out by a mind plotting self-destruction they would be on their way to solving what has become a major health problem. So say Dr. Edwin S. Shneidman of the University of Southern California and Dr. Norman L. Farberow of UCLA.

By painstaking detective work the two scientists have recommended women who have committed suicide, paying special attention to their activities in the final week. They have read and analyzed nearly 800 suicide notes.
Their findings have just been published in a book called "Clues to Suicide."

The psychologists found that most suicides occur between the ages of 40 and 50, that three times as many men kill themselves as women, that three times as many whites commit suicide as nonwhites.

They found suicides more common among the economically well off than among the poor. They found far more Protestants kill themselves than the Catholics or Jews. They found that the suicide rate for married persons is lower than for those who are single, widowed or divorced, and that there are fewer suicides proportionately in rural areas than in cities.

ly favor barbiturates as instruments of suicide, while men are more liable to use guns or other violent means.

And they found the things that supposedly trigger the suicide—ill health, emotional stress, financial loss, and other motives usually listed in newspapers—are not the real causes and are actually not very important in the study.

"Most of the letters we have give ill health as the reason," Dr.
Shneidman said in an interview.
"But obviously everyone in ill health doesn't commit suicide just as everyone who lost money in 1929 didn't jump out the window.
It goes much deeper than that."

"But what we're trying to learn is not so much why people commit suicide as how they act once the idea of suicide has taken hold."

"We believe there are definite signs that indicate the suicidal attitude—obvious things such as loss of appetite, sleeplessness, lowered sex drive and others not so obvious."

"We hope to make these signs so explicit that they can be recognized for what they are and the individual can get the care and understanding that could save his life."

jects today.

Four jobs are for traffic interchanges and overpasses on U.S. and on U.S. Highway 67-70 between Little Rock and Benton.

These projects will be financed 90 per cent with federal funds and 10 per cent with state money.
The fifth project calls for replacing a bridge over Eight Mile Creek on state Highway 133 between Paragould and Lake City.
The bridge was washed out by spring floods.

Machen Flattens Argentine Fighter

PORTLAND, Ore. (U) — Eddie Machen, the No. 1 heavyweight contender, used a paralyzing body attack last night to knock out Edgardo Romero, former Argentine champion, in the fifth round.

Machen of Redding, Calif., weighed 198, Romero 235. A terrific left hook to the mid-section early in the fifth ended it. Romero sank to one knee and took the count in that position. The main event had been scheduled for 10 rounds.

Braves Close In On Flag While Cardinals Skid

By ED WILKS
Of The Associated Press

The Brooklyn Dodgers aren't going anywhere except maybe Los Angeles but they were in on the National League pennant fight almost to the end.

After grabbing two of three from Milwaukee last week the Dodgers took a last bid at second place St. Louis last night skidding the Cardinals four games behind with three and a half games to go.

"Braves won their third in a row with a 3-2 job on the New York Giants.

The Braves now have a magic number of six. Any combination of six Milwaukee victories and St. Louis defeats will give them the pennant. Both Milwaukee and St. Louis have nine games left. They meet in a three-game series opening at Milwaukee Monday.

In the American the New York Yankees reduced their magic number to four defeating Detroit 4-3. They have a 6 1/2 game lead with eight to play. Chicago's second-place White Sox have 11 left after defeating Baltimore 7-5.

Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh 2-1 and the Chicago Cubs clipped Philadelphia as Robin Roberts lost his 21st. In the other NL games Kansas City beat Boston 2-1 and Cleveland whipped Washington 4-3 in the AL.

Right-hander Lew Burdette going the distance for only the second time in seven starts tossed a four-hitter for the Braves.

Willie Mays socked his 35th home run but the Giants were fifth put it away as southpaw Johnny Antonelli — facing nine right-handed batters in the starting lineup — reached his career high in defeats with 17.

The Cardinals who had won five straight handed the Dodgers four unearned runs but Charlie Neal's two-run 12th homer had settled it in the third. Don Drysdale, Brooklyn's young ace won his 16th with relief help in the ninth blanking the cards until Wally Moon parked his 24th homer in the eighth. Lindy McDaniel was the loser.

Yogi Berra did it for the Yankees driving in all four runs with his 21st and 22nd home runs. Sal Maglie won his second but needed Bob Turley's relief in the eighth. Duke Mears was the loser.

Jim Landis drilled a two-run single in the first and Ron Jackson slammed a three-run homer in a five-run fifth for the White Sox. Jim Wilson won his 15th. Young Don Ferrarese was the loser.

The Red Sox made it 1-0 on Jim Piersall's leadoff home run — but then were blanked on six hits by Tom Gorman who won his fifth. Two runs in the fourth on three singles and Bob Martyn's fly handed Frank Sullivan his 11th defeat.

Lefty Williams walked as a pinch-hitter for Boston retaining a .377 average while Yankee Mickey Darric was 1-for-4 and slipped a point to .365.

Rockie Dick Drott became the first Cub to win 15 since Warren Hacker did it in 1952. Erie Banks regained the major league home run lead with No. 42. Harry Anderson tied the Phils rookie home run record set by Del Ennis in 1948 with his 17th.

Smoky Burgess' single won it for the Redlegs in the ninth. Brooks Lawrence whose RBI single junked a three-hit shutout by Liser R. G. Smith in the seventh won his 16th.

Mike Garcia won his 12th for the Indians while Billy Harrell hit a three-run double in a five-run fifth that clinched it.

Los Angeles' Archib Moore steadfastly refusing to admit father time exists envisions his light heavyweight title defense against Tony Anthony tomorrow night as a start back to heavyweight contention.

The ancient ring artisan of about 41 years, who guards is exact age with the coquettishness of a dowager, lost via knockout to Rocky Marciano and Floyd Patterson in previous shots at the heavyweight crown. Now he says he hopes to "force" Patterson into giving him another chance.

First, according to the Moore formula, he will whip Anthony, then battle Canadian light heavyweight Yvon Durelle and perhaps a couple of heavyweight contenders.

Archie who has done his training largely behind closed doors drew a $80,000 guarantee for his defense tomorrow night in the nationally televised bout (NBC 8 p. m. CST). He knows higher earnings await heavyweight kings.

Most figure the fight a loss-up as Archie defends for the sixth time the crown he won on Dec. 17, 1932, from Joey Maxim. Moore's camp won the first skirmish when a 10 a. m. weighing-in time was set for tomorrow. Ernie Bracia, the challenge's manager, stormed.

"Moore wanted all the money and he got it. Now here's getting his own weighing in time."

"Bracia wanted a man weigh-in. Moore needed to reduce from 212 down to the 175-pound heavy limit."

Turner Gets Decision Over Akin

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (U) — Gil Turner, the husky guy from Philadelphia, was high up in the welterweight picture again and looking for a little shot today after his upset victory over leatharge Virgil Akins.

"If Carmen Basilio beats Ray Robinson for the middleweight title Monday night, then we'll have to be in any elimination tournament for the welterweight title," said George Kat, Turner's manager. "Akins was ranked second by Ring and third by the NBA, so that means we have to be in there."

"However, if Robinson wins Herman Taylor, who hopes to get his promoting license in Philadelphia is ready to offer Basilio $7500 to defend his welter title against Turner in Philadelphia," added Kat.

Turner's decision victory over Akins in their telecast 10 rounder last night was his third straight. He had beaten middleweight Yama Basha and Del Flanagan previously.

Referee Joey Mangold the only official, awarded the verdict to Gil on a 5-4-1 score in rounds. Turner had to win the last round, according to Mangold's card, and he did that in typical storming fashion.

Strong at 151 pounds, Turner kept the pressure in is flurry fighting 14 - pound opponent throughout.

Likes Porkers Over Okla. Afs Saturday

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (U) — Football season, like birthdays, keep rolling around faster each year. Here's hoping not all the candles are blown out on opening day.

Oklahoma over Pittsburgh: This could be the season's toughest game of the year but it definitely will be their 41st consecutive triumph.

Texas A&M over Maryland: The Aggies are driving for a Cotton Bowl berth this year and won't be sidetracked in their opening game.

Navy over Boston College: Bob Reifnyder has been shifted to center to give Navy's its heaviest line ever.

Virginia Tech over Tulane: Strictly a hunch. It is a Friday night game.

Duke over South Carolina: This one may decide the Atlantic Coast Conference title on the opening day.

Oregon State over Southern California: Joe Francis, as line a tailback as you'll see, gives the host Oregon State team the edge.

Baylor over Villanova: The Philadelphia Wildcats travel here and there for their games. Unfortunately, their victories also come only here and there — and they definitely won't win here.

California over Southern Methodist: Each team has a new coach. California also has Joe Kapp at quarterback.

Skipping over the others: Friday Night UCLA over Air Force Academy, Davidson over Catayba.

Saturday:
MIDWEST: Detroit over Marquette, Iowa State over Denver, Nebraska over Washington State, Tulsa over Hardin Simmons, Arizona State over Wichita, Cincinnati over Dayton.

SOUTH: North Carolina over N. C. State, The Citadel over Newberry, Clemson over Presbyterian, Florida State over Furman, Georgia Tech over Kentucky, Texas over Georgia, Rice over Louisiana State, Richmond over Randolph Macon, Tampa over Virginia Military, Vanderbilt over Missouri, George Washington over William and Mary.

and an earlier weighing time gives more opportunity to slow away a couple of streaks and regain strength between then and fight time.

Dequeen Going All Out to Defeat the Bobcats

The Bobcats journey to DeQueen tomorrow night for what promises to be a real pip-a-toe of a football game. The Cats have one win under their belts, an easy 45-6 victory over Stamps. The Leopards have sacked two wins thus far; 27 to 0 over DeKalb, Texas and 33 to 7 over Broken Bow, Okla.

Last year, the Bobcats won over DeQueen 21 to 6 for the first time in 5 years. This year, it may be different. The Leopards are primed and ready for the Bobcats and are making no bones about it. They want to win this game in the worst way, or any way they can.

The Black and Gold boys are classed in District 7A, along with Ashdown, Nashville, Prescott and Gurdon, and a win over the Bobcats is just added glory and of course, there was no contact work and more is scheduled before the opening game. The session ended with the usual wild spirits.

Against the Leopards gained 304 yards from scrimmage, made 15 first down to 4 for BB, only threw 3 passes and intercepted 3 of the Savages, and something the Bobcats should think about, they only received one penalty for 5 years the entire game.

In the game with Stamps, the Bobcats were penalized 12 times for 125 yards. Maybe against Stamps that 125 yards didn't make much difference, but against DeQueen, it could be the difference between victory and defeat.

The Leopards have a backfield that consists of a 220 pound fullback, noted for ploughing right through the line on offense and a 160 pound defensive end, noted for run like scared rabbits and a quarterback that can do every-thing.

Sharp passing was displayed by quarterback Doyle Traylor and Buddy Humphrey in the final long drill for Baylor before the Bears play Villanova Saturday night. Villanova formations got special attention. Coach Sam Boyd promised.

On the opening kickoff against Broken Bow, Warren Norwood grabbed the pigskin on the 10, picked up a pocket of interference about the 15, squirted free on the 35 and not a hand was laid on him the full 90 yards. That is what we're up against Friday night.

The Bobcats' practice Monday and Tuesday, to put it mildly, were nothing to brag about. Wednesday, they looked much better, following a talk by Coach Turpin.

Mary, Miami over Houston, West Virginia over Virginia, SOUTHWEST: Arkansas over Oklahoma State, Texas Christian over Trinity, Texas Tech over West Texas State, Texas Western over North Texas State.

FAR WEST: Arizona over Brigham Young, Oregon over Idaho, Utah over Montana State, Wyoming over Kansas State, Stanford over San Jose, College of Pacific over San Diego State, Washington over Colorado.

Ruling Appealed in Virginia

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP) — U.S. Judge Albert V. Bryan today held up, pending appeal, the application of his order for integration of four Arlington County, Va., white schools next Monday.

The stay had been asked by the school board, largely on the ground that great damage would be done if the admission of Negro pupils proved only temporary.

Atty. James H. Sintonoids argued for the school board that admission of the seven Negroes involved in the order would result in closing schools serving more than 5,000 pupils. He said that was because of state law requiring withholding of state funds from any integrated school.

Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Melteny of Camden were the weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Melteny.

Officials to Pick Tech School Site

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—Education officials may decide next Monday on a definite location at Pine Bluff for the new vocational-technical school.

Subcommittees from the state Board of Education and the Advisory Council on Vocational Education have inspected several proposed sites in the city.

Education Commissioner A. W. Ford said yesterday that a Little Rock architect is preparing cost studies on each of the locations.

The Education Board decided Sept. 10 that it would establish the first school to train persons over 16 in vocational trades at Pine Bluff. The 1957 Legislature appropriated $500,000 to build and equip the institution.

Included on the Education Board subcommittee are Rhable Rhodes of Harrison, Dr. John Cole of Malvern and T. C. Cogbill Jr., of Star City. The council group is composed of Sen. Boss Mitchell of Danville, Rep. John T. Bethell of Prairie County and Stanley McNulty of Pine Bluff.

TELEPHONE TALK

By Vance Smiley, Wire Chief, Hope, Ark.

DO YOU KNOW?

I am wondering just how much we really know about the people that live in Hope, and to be a little more specific, the people we work with. The other night thirty of our employees met to honor one who has just completed thirty five years of service with our company. Talk at such a gathering usually covers the field from politics to religion.

Someone said, "I wonder just how many years of service is represented in this group of employees." Someone else said, "I'll just pass this piece of paper around and each one of you list your service date on it and we will just see."

541 Years
I must say that I was as surprised as anyone to learn that of this group of thirty people, that I work with every day, represented five hundred and forty-one years, or an average of a little over eighteen years per employee. This proves one thing to me, and I hope to you, that from such a group of employees you are assured of the best telephone service.

DON'T RUN! REACH!

Next time your telephone rings, think about this: Can you reach out and answer it . . . or do you have to run for it?

Is it handy? Or is it in some out-of-the-way place? Maybe even on a different floor?

The cost of having telephones wherever you need them around the house is surprisingly low, especially in comparison to the comfort and convenience they give you.

Each extension phone costs only $1.00 a month plus a one-time installation charge.

Why don't you call or come by the telephone business office? Let us help you plan complete, convenient telephone service. More and more people are learning the modern idea is to have phones within easy reach.

CAMPUS TO HOME BY PHONE

If your family includes youngsters who will be away at college this fall, you'll soon find it suddenly quieter, less lively around your house. You'll miss this noise and activity because it means the family is separated between here and some college campus.

Your family can stay in close contact during the school year, however, by planning weekly long distance visits between campus and home. It's a convenient, pleasant way to keep in touch and the cost is low.

A nighttime (or Sunday) station-to-station call from Hope to Arkadelphia is only 45¢ for the first three minutes. That's just one example of how little it costs to visit by long distance with the youngsters away at school.

Call by number. It's twice as easy.

CHAPTER XXI

Carliotta couldn't contain her curiosity as to how Sarah had been able to identify the dead man, how she knew who he was.

Sarah told the story Tom had instructed her to tell. Someone had introduced her to Bennett somewhere and she had seen him later around the Village and finally in the Melville house. It wasn't the man himself she had recognized, nobody told her that; it was his beaten-up hat.

Carliotta exclaimed at that. "You tried for the biography to 'She looked arch. That's where you people met. Sarah, you wretch, why didn't you tell me?"

Sarah smiled faintly. "I didn't know that you'd be particularly interested."

Steven was hungry, said they'd feel better with some food, and Tom drove Carliotta down to the store. While they were gone Sarah told Steven about his scribbled note she'd found in her apartment, and asked when he'd been there — and was freshly startled.

He said slowly, "Will you do something for me, Sarah. Will you forget about the note, forget I was in your apartment that day?"

The poison injected into her veins by Tom distorted her vision. Tom could lie anybody could lie. Steven looked different, strange. What harm was there in Steven's dropping into her apartment. He and Carliotta had a key, one or both of them had done it before. She had only found the note last Friday night, because wind had blown papers to the floor, but it could have been there a long time. She was convinced that the day to which Steven alluded was the day of Grant Melville's death. Tom warning her to keep quiet about things, and now Steven was acting as if something was wrong.

"All right, I'll forget about it." Then at once he was himself again. He patted her shoulder. "Good girl. I'll tell you about it some day. I can't now."

While Carney finished with the stone house that evening he looked in at the Tasks. Florrie Brown and Diana Satterlee were both there.

The lieutenant put his question to the room mildly and without explanation. "Would you mind telling us where you people were individually on Oct. 2?"

Remembering back weeks to a particular day was usually difficult, but Sarah observed that Carliotta and Steven, Diana Satterlee and Florrie Brown had no trouble. They knew instantly the day to which the lieutenant referred. She couldn't decide whether Steven would have denied being in New York or not, he didn't get the chance. Intercomline warfare broke out between Florrie and Diana Satterlee. Florrie spoke first. "The third I can't recall, but you were in New York then, you and Felix, Di."

Di Satterlee gave Florrie a look out of her haggard eyes, and said in a freezing tone, "I remember the day very well indeed. It was the day Grant died" and then she exploded. Turning to Carney she said furiously, "Ask that little tart what she was doing having cocktails with Grant in the Long-champs at Twelfth Street at around two o'clock that afternoon."

It was Florrie's turn then. She jumped up from the couch spilling her drink. "You old bag, Lou!" Epithets poured out of her.

The story came out, of course, it had to. Steven, Carliotta, Bob and Florrie Brown had all been in New York that day. After a quarrel with her husband the evening before, Florrie had dashed off in their car at around eight p.m., leaving a note saying she was going to stay with her aunt in New Jersey and Bob could expect her back when he saw her. It went to Carliotta with his tale of woe, and Carliotta, who shared his worry about Florrie and what she might do, had gone after her with Bob Brown. Steven got home an hour or so after she and Bob Brown started. He read the message Carliotta had left for him, waited for a while in the hope they'd return, and when they didn't appear by two a.m. he borrowed Sprout's car and went after them — he didn't want Carliotta mixed up in the Browns' fights.

In New York, where he arrived at around nine on the morning of the third, Steven went to the Morris, the hotel at which he generally satyed when in town, got a room and telephoned around. Steven tried half a dozen people, among them Sarah, trying to find Carliotta, who finally turned up at the hotel at a quarter of six that evening.

She and Bob Brown had been equally unsuccessful in catching up with Florrie. Bob Brown started for Florrie's aunt in Jersey, sure that she would go there when she ran out of funds. He was still there when Steven got hold of him after 10 that night. Steven had had the bright idea of calling Cornwall and Florrie was home.

Lieutenant Carney had taken everything down in his methodical way. He said, "You left New York at what time that day, the third, Mrs. Brown?"

"Fivish, maybe nearer six."

"Where were you in the meantime, if you left Mr. Melville at a little after three?"

She had been shopping at Duke and Carmine's. "And Bob never even noticed my new things..." Florrie threw out an arm and pointed at Carliotta. "He doesn't care anything about me," she sobbed. "He's in love with her. He is, he is — I know, he is."

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hurricane Carrie whipped through the Atlantic 400 miles northeast of Bermuda today churning the seas with uniminished force hundreds of miles to the east and west.

A weather bureau bulletin at noon (EDT) said the storm was expected to maintain its present size, intensity and easterly course during the next 12 hours.

Carrie, moving at about 12 miles per hour, packed 85-mile-per-hour winds near the center with hurricane force winds extending outward 75 miles.

Shipping interests in and near the projected path were warned to exercise caution in the face of gale force winds extending outward 250 miles from the center. The next advisory was scheduled for 6 p.m. (EDT).

Corrie Ripping Along In Atlantic

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Arkansas Highway commission today said it now appears that payments to contractors for construction in progress can be made as they come due.

Last July the commission announced that it was facing a temporary financial shortage because of a lag in receipts of state money caused by financing charges made by the 1957 legislature.

At that time the commission said it had no assurance that it would be able to pay contractors promptly after Aug. 15. Later the date was extended to Sept. 15 and still later it was postponed indefinitely.

Commission Chairman Glenn F. Wallace today said that under present conditions the commission will be able to meet all obligations in full through the period which will automatically end when state money begins to accrue to the department in sizable volume around Nov. 1.

He said the commission had been aided through its financial crisis by speeded-up reimbursement payments from the Federal Bureau of Public Roads and by a deferment of maintenance work which could be postponed.

The commission had made similar statements previously.

Wallace and other members of the commission repeated again that for the immediate future most, but not all, new construction jobs would be on the federal interstate system where state funds are matched on a one-nine basis in contrast to other types of work where the matching customarily is on a 50-50 basis.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Excise taxes netted Uncle Sam more than 10½ billion dollars in the 1957 fiscal year which ended last June 30. Nearly half the total came from whisky, beer and cigarettes, but numerous other items accounted for sizable shares.

The final tabulation, announced by the Treasury Department today, showed total excise tax collections of $10,647,544,000 during the 12-month period, compared with $10,041,950,000 predicted by President Eisenhower in his budget message to Congress last January.

The biggest single revenue producer was the excise tax on distilled spirits which brought in $2,121,411,000. The tax on beer netted another 763 million dollars, and wine was good for 68½ millions more.

Total tobacco taxes were $1,674,050,000. Most of this — $1,610,968,000 — was on cigarettes.

Many Students Have Asian Flu

By The Associated Press

Thousands of flu cases, most of it believed to be of the Asian variety, were reported today in New York, Mississippi and Texas. School-age children were the hardest hit.

A Board of Health report showed 24,000 cases in Mississippi. Outbreaks near the epidemic stage existed in 12 Mississippi counties.

Dr. A. L. Gray, director of preventive disease control for Mississippi, said most of the cases are Asian flu. Up to 40 per cent of the population has or has had flu in some areas, he added.

Doctors investigated a suspected epidemic of Asian flu among more than 400 school children in the town of Hastings in Oswego County, N. Y.

Legion Studies Proposal by General Clark

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—The American Legion today studied a proposal by Gen. Mark Clark that a summer camp for boys be set up in every military establishment in the nation to help prevent juvenile delinquency.

Clark was applauded at a Legion national convention dinner last night when he said he would make the proposal to President Eisenhower if the idea found support.

Clark, former United Nations commander in Korea, said he had conducted such a camp this summer at The Citadel, the Charleston, S. C., military college of which he is president.

He said the Citadel camp, besides providing recreation and a sense of discipline, taught character and love of God and country.

It, at the end of camp, the boys were given pins denoting them as junior defenders of the country, he said, they would go out to prevent trouble instead of to cause it.

Clark did not spell out details of the proposal except to say the boys would not wear uniforms and that the cost would be about "two dollars per day per lad."

He estimated that hundreds of thousands of boys could be accommodated if the facilities were made available.

At the Citadel camp, he said, the boys studied the Constitution and the Bill of Rights and learned "What made our country great."

"Support the Constitution," Clark said at one point. "I feel, sad when I read about people who want to change the intent and meaning of the Constitution."

He did not elaborate. The 40 and 3, the Legion's fun-making branch, held its annual parade last night on Atlantic Avenue, paralleling the boardwalk, before a crowd estimated by police at up to 200,000 persons.

Suggests Churches Need Additional Salesmanship

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Reflections of a Pavement Plate:

Churches need more salesmanship.

Despite a national upsurge of religious interest, ministers still complain of empty pews, particularly on Sabbaths marked by good golfing weather.

One wonders occasionally why more pastors don't adopt the showmanship of the business world.

There have been suggestions the churches might give prizes to adults for regular attendance as they do now for children. The thought even has been advanced that this could be done in a form familiar to millions of American husbands and wives—so-called premium stamps.

For example, each person might receive 5 stamps for each service he attended plus 10 stamps for

AF Will Try to Fire A 4-Way Rocket

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Air Force late this month will attempt to fire a four-stage research rocket to an unprecedented altitude—1,000 to 1,000 miles above the earth.

The rocket will be lifted the first 100,000 feet—nearly 20 miles—by a huge balloon which will then serve as a firing platform for the research vehicle.

The firing, Phase 2 of the Air Force's Project Far Side, will take place on Eniwetok Atoll in the Pacific, the Air Research and Development Command announced yesterday. No specific date was given.

Phase 1 was accomplished last June 28 when the ARDC sent the world's largest balloon—200 feet in diameter and weighing 1,500 pounds—up more than 104,000 feet with a record load of nearly two tons.

ARDC said the rocket firing will be strictly an exploratory research effort, aimed at gathering data on cosmic rays, the earth's magnetic field and other phenomena of the upper atmosphere.

"The firing is not an attempt to place a satellite in space," and has no relation to the Navy's Project Vanguard, the ARDC said. A spokesman also said Project Far Side has no nuclear energy aspects.

The four-stage rocket will be packed with instruments, including, a tiny, but powerful, radio transmitter which will relay scientific data back to earth.

There has been no description of the four-stage rocket, eight of which have been manufactured by the Thiokol Chemical Corp. of Elkton, Md. The helium-filled balloon was developed by General Mills Co.

Gov. Harriman Would Seize National Guard

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Gov. Averell Harriman suggested today that President Eisenhower could end the school integration controversy in Little Rock, Ark., by federalizing the Arkansas National Guard and ordering it out of the territory.

"It is a tragic thing that the President has been complicit in a very important constitutional crisis," the Democratic governor declared.

Harriman, a member of the advisory committee to the Democratic National Committee, defended the group's public criticism of the President Sunday.

Eisenhower charged through his press secretary yesterday that the advisory committee was playing politics with civil rights.

"It's not politics," Harriman asserted vigorously.

The governor told a news conference that the Communists were using the Little Rock incident in their propaganda to injure U. S. prestige abroad.

"American soldiers should not keep children out of schools," he continued. "They are comparing us to Hungary."

He said Eisenhower "should have made it plain very early in the game that there was going each contribution to the collection plate. These would be pasted into a book and in return exchanged for premiums ranging from a family Bible to religious objects—or perhaps even badly needed household furniture.

The mere suggestion of giving premium stamps for going to church might affront the sensitive devout but after all they are not the problem. They already go to church. The task that confronts the conscientious clergyman is how to swell his congregation so that more can hear his message.

"The church is neither a super-market nor a filling station and salvation is not a mere bargain," some might object.

Yet aren't they wrong. Isn't a good church the greatest of supermarkets the finest of all filling stations dispensing the bread of the soul and the fuel of the spirit? Isn't salvation the tremendous bargain most of the 7 earth's lost bargain hunters are vainly seeking?

The trouble with salvation is that most people have heard it's free and therefore they doubt its value because life has taught them you don't get something for nothing. Actually, of course, salvation has a very real price tag—called penitence.

But how is the preacher going to get his flock together so he can deliver his message? After all, the Salvation Army beats a drum in the streets to collect crowds and out of these crowds it salvages some souls.

If a church can do the same thing by giving prizes to increase regular attendance then is it not worth considering?

Some may say that the very idea is an affront to the dignity of religion and an invitation to flood the churches with opportunistic hypocrites. But no church has as its function the pursuit of earthly dignity, and it is better for a church to be filled with hypocrites—after all, hypocrites can change—than to stand half-empty.

Would anybody's dignity really be immorally offended if in some church that gave premium stamps, one lost soul should find salvation and at the same time win as a prize a floor lamp to read the Bible by?

Colleran Is Man Happily Harassed

By WILLIAM GLOVER

NEW YORK (AP)—Television's most happily harassed man of the week is Bill Colleran.

"It works out fine," he says. "The more hectic things get the calmer I become."

Colleran, who looks and moves like a varsity footballer, is juggling a couple of the prize directorial plums of the season. He is efforting to be seen on rival networks.

First to appear before the public is the "Polly Bergen Show," a bi-weekly regular that debuts next Saturday (Sept. 21) over NBC. The other, and more formidable, is "Crescendo," the first to be trouble, if Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas persisted in preventing integration in Little Rock.

Eisenhower, said Harriman, should have called Faubus aside and said: "Young man, you've made a great mistake. The biggest thing you can do is reverse."

Harriman pointed out that the President "has the right to federalize the guard and send it home."

star packed special of the season on Columbia, Sunday, Sept. 20.

This 90-minute "Show of the Month" has a lineup including Rex Harrison through Benny Goodman Ethel Merman, Carol Channing, Louis Armstrong, Peggy Lee and a half-dozen other stars.

Colleran sums up the contrast of problems of his twin tasks.

"All of us say 'we've got to do something different' as a singing show," he says of the Polly Bergen item. "The solution—a flexible format."

The "Crescendo" matter is, however, more complex.

"It embraces a use of 'space' and imagination—for the people watching as well as for us," comments the director.

A cavalcade of American music "Crescendo" will avoid elaborate settings, lengthy dialogue and stunts.

Although it is to be televised in color, the staff is keeping in mind that most of the audience will be looking on with black and white sets.

"Crescendo" is being produced by Paul Gregory, who chalked up such Broadway hits as "Don Juan in Hell" and "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial."

New Program About Like Year Before

By WILLIAM GLOVER

NEW YORK (AP)—Television's new program season is here—or is it? By most of the evidence scored—thus far, things look about as they were last season—or the year before.

Since this time last week, the networks have unveiled 28 items in continuing time slots. Of these only 4 make claim to being new, but even they are well within the established bounds of familiar formats.

The rest from Perry Como to Art Linkletter, are taking down the shutters after the summer on time-tested stocks.

Of the 23, 16 are on film—which means audience reaction can't alter things for 13 weeks anyway until option time is up—and one "Lucy" is a straight-out rerun of yesterday's laughter.

This may be the year for Westerns but situation comedies went on exhibit against 4 oaks-and-spurs teamed up with Gregory on the latter's television debut last season with "Three for Tonight."

McClellan Can't See Peaceful Settlement

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) said he believes there is "some doubt" that the Arkansas school integration controversy could be settled peacefully.

McClellan emphasized to newsmen who questioned him about the dispute, in his state that his information was "all hearsay."

The school question came up during a conference. McClellan called yesterday to announce plans for his Senate Rackets investigating committee.

He was asked if he thought the school problem in Little Rock could be "settled peacefully." McClellan said he "did not know," then added:

"I think there is some doubt about it."

McClellan said he talked briefly with Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus several days after the Little Rock school dispute arose. He declined to say what they discussed.

He said he did not know whether Faubus' action had hurt Arkansas' reputation or would be politically damaging to the Democrats.

class appeared to have promising future. One newcomer in each future.

In the comedy division, "Sally," premiered on NBC's Sunday agenda with its strong points the looks of Joan Caulfield and the comic skill of Marin Lorne.

Piled against it, and adding to its luster by contrast, was another new humor sequence on CBS, "Bachelor Father."

In the spirit of public service, the ABC network provided another promising newcomer with "Look Here," in which Marlin Agronsky plans to essay philosophical studies of his guest.

Channel chapter: It was bound to happen. "Turning Point," a series about what happens to winners of big quiz shows afterwards is about to be filmed. "Song and dance are taking over from stark drama on the U. S. Steel agenda, with 'Who's Earnest?' set for Oct. 9 and 'Huck Finn' for Nov. 20.

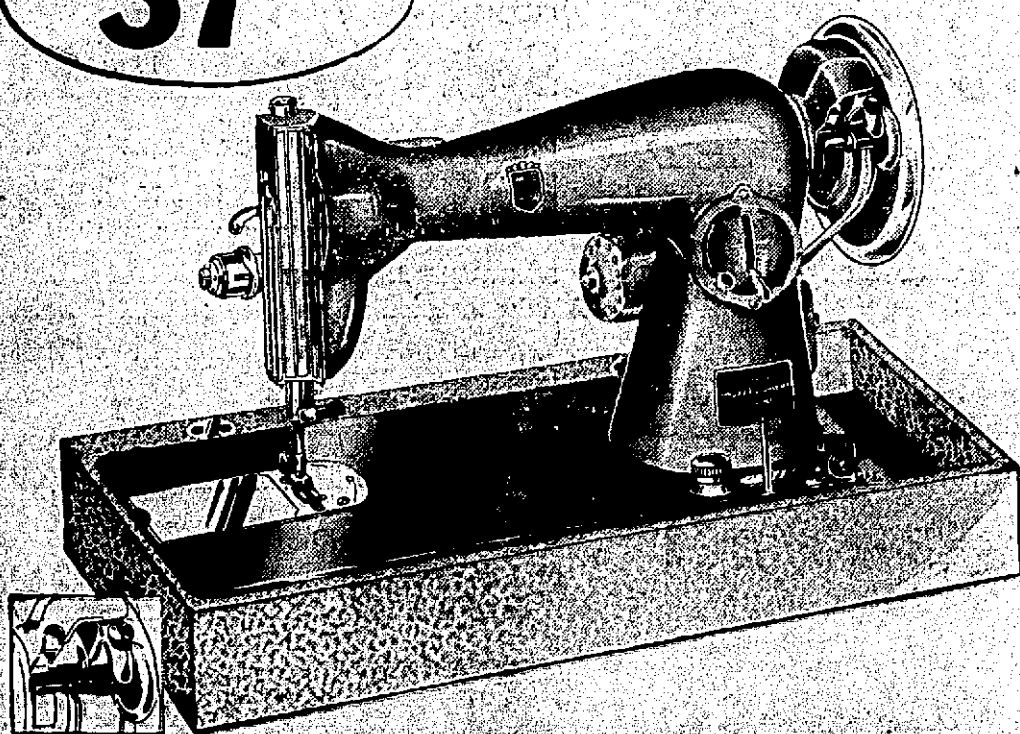

The global penetration of U. S. television is proclaimed by CBS with announcement that "Sale of our programs" to Saudi Arabia puts the networks' films on six continents.
